

Corn

Across

4. The poisonous substance that results from moldy corn.
7. The temperature at which corn stops growing.
12. The most common type of corn grown.
13. The pH the soil should be for corn to grow well.
15. The number two state in corn production.
16. The percent moisture that corn should be dried to.
18. The type of endosperm that is hard.
19. The type of endosperm that is soft.
20. The part of the kernel that stores energy.
21. The tough outer covering on a corn kernel.
22. The type of roots that are visible above the ground.

Down

1. The seed of a cereal crop.
2. The type of corn that has a very large portion of starchy endosperm.
3. The point of the kernel that attached to the cob.
5. The temperature the soil must be for corn to grow.
6. The type of corn that corn meal is made from.
8. The outer covering on the ear of corn.
9. Artificially watering the crops.
10. The female part of the corn flower.
11. The male part of the corn flower.
14. The practice of drilling corn to plant it instead of plowing.
17. The number of plants growing in one acre.