

Horticulture Industry

Across

3. Producing and processing tree fruit
7. Growing plants in water
10. The study of trees for ornamental or production purposes
11. A place where a person can buy nursery crops retail
13. Producing and processing vegetables
14. The part of horticulture dealing with planting around houses and buildings
15. The scientific study of plants
16. Selling to companies rather than the public
17. Producing and using flowering and foliage plants
18. A place where small plants are started in containers

Down

1. A place where specimen plants are kept and maintained for observation
2. The study and production of plants for food, beauty, or comfort
4. _____ horticulture includes growing plants for beauty
5. Grass that is grown and harvest for turf
6. The leaves or vegetative parts of a plant
8. The leading state in floriculture production
9. A person who arranges flowers
11. A structure that allows for growing plants out of season
12. Selling to the public
15. The type of plants that account for the most money in the floriculture industry