

1. What do we call the things that are voted on in a meeting?
2. What is the minimum number of people that must be present for business to be conducted in a meeting?
3. What do we call half the membership present plus 1?
4. How many taps of a gavel signals a ruling on a motion by the chair?
5. How many taps of a gavel signals that everyone must stand?
6. What words must be used to start a motion?
7. What is the rule of 1's in parli pro?
8. What is the leading resource on parliamentary procedure?
9. What do we call an orderly system of conducting a meeting?
10. Which types of motions have to do with the way the meeting is being conducted?
11. Which motions are so important they can interrupt business?
12. Which motions can be made about the main motion?
13. Which motions deal with the items of business?
14. What is needed for the assembly to consider a motion?
15. Which motion allows a member to ask permission for a pressing need (bathroom/window)?
16. Which motion ends the meeting?
17. Which motion takes a short break in the meeting?
18. Which motion is used to tell the chair he/she has made a mistake?
19. Which motion is used to force a vote on a ruling (decision) made by the chair?
20. Which motion calls for an immediate revote after a voice vote?
21. Which motion makes a change to a pending motion?
22. Which motion puts the pending motion on hold until the next meeting?
23. Which motion allows a committee to consider all the facts about a pending motion?
24. Which motion ends all discussion and moves to a vote?
25. Which motion delays a pending motion until further notice?
26. How does the assembly talk about a motion?
27. What does the chair tell a member who is not following the rules?
28. What vote does it take to limit the rights of the assembly (like previous question)?
29. What do we call the smaller group of people in the assembly?
30. What is the name for the body of people who are meeting?